January Farm Labor

For the Mountain I Region of the U.S. (Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming), there were 20,000 hired workers on farms and ranches during the week of January 9–15, 2011, according to the National Agricultural Statistics Service. Hired workers worked an average of 41.0 hours during the survey week at an average wage of $11.45 per hour.

There were 807,000 hired workers on the Nation's farms and ranches during the week of January 9-15, 2011, up 1 percent from a year ago. Of these hired workers, 602,000 were hired directly by farm operators. Agricultural service employees on farms and ranches made up the remaining 205,000 workers. Farm operators paid their hired workers an average wage of $11.29 per hour during the January 2011 reference week, up 21 cents from a year earlier. Field workers received an average of $10.23 per hour, up 13 cents from last January, while livestock workers earned $10.52 per hour compared with $10.31 a year earlier. The field and livestock worker combined wage rate, at $10.35 per hour, was up 17 cents from last year. The number of hours worked averaged 38.9 for hired workers during the survey week, up 5 percent from a year ago.
